BIO

Catalan actor born in L'Hospitalet de Llobregat (Barcelona) and graduated from the acting school Nancy Tuñon.

He combines his work as an actor with the facet of acting teacher in "Tu personaje se emociona", a course founded by him, where he has been teaching for three years.

From that need to create, express and feel, he lets himself be carried away by writing and goes a step further. He shares his writings on his website and takes another step forward... he decides to bet on music.

He composes the lyrics of his songs and chooses rap as a channel of expression.

"Fear fills the show with false applause. The academy of conformism nominated me but I resigned ipso facto".

With these verses from one of his songs he defines himself. Without fear and without conforming, that yes, all with calm steps and without running, to be able to see all that he already has here and enjoy it.
