BIO

Natalia Cobos Chapman 25 years old, since the age of 12 she belonged to the school theater group Alezeiateatro where she performed Greco-Latin plays and musicals and with which she received two consecutive Buero Vallejo awards for best Andalusian actress, one in 2012 for the role of Medea and another in 2013 for the role of Creonte.

Her professional training begins in 2014 when she enters the ESAD in Malaga to study the Higher Degree in the specialty of Musical Interpretation. She continues training in MEV for singing and takes acting courses in front of the camera at Self-Service and Cinemaroom. During her studies she worked in La Fuerza del Destino of Ático Luna, in several zarzuelas of the Teatro Lirico Andaluz and in Pink Floyd's Muro de Pink Floyd of Nuevo Teatro Musical.

Shortly after finishing her training she moved to Madrid where she started working as a swing actress in Parque Warner in Madrid. She has also worked in several children's musicals with the company TPT. She continues training in the specialty of singing at the MEV school. In 2021 she returns to Malaga to perform in the play Los Ignífugos by Ruth Rubio for Factoria Echeagaray in the role of Juana.
