BIO

Laura Galán studied drama at Arte4, an actors' studio. She complemented her training with directors and actors such as Will Keen, Pablo Messiez, and Andrés Lima, with whom she later worked in Capitalismo, Los Máchez, Medea, or Sueño. Other theater works include Vanessa Espín's Un animal en mi almohada and Las crónicas de Peter Sanchidrián, I and II, directed by José Padilla. She alternates different appearances in television and cinema, working under the orders of Terry Gilliam in the feature film El hombre que mató a Don Quijote, or in David Galán Galindo's Orígenes Secretos. Her latest works are the feature films Cerdita, by Carlota Pereda and Una noche con Adela, by Hugo Ruíz (both in the leading role) and the participation in Zorras, a series directed by Ana Vázquez and Aritz Moreno.
