BIO

Raquel Guerrero is an actress and multidisciplinary creator. Although her artistic career has focused mainly on acting for the past 17 years and on theatrical creation and production, she has now expanded her creative channel to audiovisual language.

Her feature film script "Zoe" has just won the Filmarket Hub 2021 International Feature Film Competition and she has just released her first short film: "Inútil", of which she is the screenwriter and director. Since its premiere in Medina del Campo in March 2022, it has already been selected for more than 20 festivals, including several Goya pre-selection festivals and 8 national and international awards.
