BIO

Born in July 73 in Torrelaguna (Madrid).

After graduating with a degree in Acting, his career as a theater actor, above all, has been developed in different independent theater companies.

He has participated in different roles in more than 50 film and television productions, always trying to make the most of each role, whatever its size and importance.

As a musician, in addition to the activity with his group "ElZurdo", he has written songs for different theater, film and television projects.

His vocation for storytelling has also led him to write and direct different theater projects.

In the spirit of continuing to grow and nurturing the enormous love he has for his craft, he tries to approach each job with daring, trying to occupy the place from which his contribution is most profitable for each project.
